

1 Introduction

For many years Cefetra has been supplying agricultural ingredients to the feed, food and energy industries. With a broad portfolio and extensive expertise in supply chains and logistical solutions, our companies deliver the best possible service to customers. For Cefetra quality and food safety are an absolute priority, yet we also take seriously our responsibility when it comes to sustainability. We aim to establish maximum integrity in our supply chains and to guarantee sustainable raw material flows, which is why this Supplier Code of Conduct has been established.

2 Objective

The purpose of this Code of Conduct is to ensure responsible conduct in agricultural supply chains. In general, Cefetra expects its suppliers to work in accordance with local and national laws. The overarching goal of this Code of Conduct is to increase awareness and encourage responsible business conduct in supply chains Cefetra operates in by setting the minimum compliance level for Cefetra's suppliers when conducting business.

The requirements that have been included in this Code of Conduct are based on the UN Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), the OECD Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises as well as ILO conventions.

3 Scope

This Supplier Code of Conduct applies to all direct and indirect suppliers of Cefetra Ltd. (hereinafter Cefetra).

4 Driving improvement in Cefetra's supply chain

Companies that deliver goods and services to Cefetra are encouraged to set up their own Code of Conduct and to include similar requirements as detailed in this Code of Conduct to strive for compliance across the whole supply chain.

5 All suppliers must be in compliance with applicable legal requirements

All Cefetra's suppliers must comply with applicable (inter)national and local laws and regulations.

6 Human rights are supported and respected

Cefetra requires its suppliers to support and uphold the protection of internationally recognized human rights and to ensure that they are not involved in any human rights abuse or use of forced, bonded or prison labor.

7 Children and young workers are protected

Cefetra's suppliers must comply with the minimum standards of the ILO Conventions on the minimum age for admission to employment or work and the prohibition of child labor and take all necessary measures to prevent the hiring of persons below the legal minimum age (No. 138), as well as upholding the convention prohibiting the worst forms of child labour (No. 182). Children and young workers need to be protected from economic exploitation and from performing work that is likely to jeopardize their health and safety, morality, interfere with their education or harm their development. Children and young workers shall not be employed at night or in hazardous conditions.

8 Labor rights are supported and respected

8.1 Suppliers shall remunerate employees appropriately, and at least in line with minimum wages guaranteed by law, or in absence of such legislation, ensure employees receive at least a living income or minimum income, whichever is higher. A living income is defined as 'the net income a household would need to earn to enable all members of the household to afford a decent standard of living'.

8.2 Suppliers must not engage in modern slavery, forced labor, human trafficking and/or other forms of exploitation. Human trafficking is defined as the trade in people and does not necessarily involve the movement of persons. Modern slavery is the severe exploitation of people for personal or commercial gain.

8.3 Suppliers shall respect employees' freedom to form and/or join trade unions and right to collective bargaining. If the freedom to association and collective bargaining is restricted by law, then the supplier shall facilitate alternative means of independent and free association for employee bargaining such as workers forums.

8.4 Suppliers must protect employees from discrimination, intimidation, oppression or harassment in any form. No harsh, inhumane, or unequal treatment is permitted.

9 Employees are protected against hazards inherent to the working environment

9.1 Suppliers shall provide employees with a safe and healthy work environment and ensure access to potable water, sanitary facilities, fire safety facilities and first aid facilities. Emergency procedures should be in place and training provided to ensure workers can safely perform tasks. Where accommodation is provided it should be clean, safe and meet the basic needs of workers.

9.2 Suppliers shall ensure that employees' are not endangered in any way due to the use of dangerous machinery, unsafe building structure or layout, harmful noise emissions, or dangerous substances. Where serious or fatal accidents have occurred, suppliers shall be able to demonstrate that all appropriate measures have been taken to prevent similar accidents occurring in the future.

9.3.1 Suppliers shall not use dangerous substances, such as chemicals, when other, less dangerous substances, are available in the market. Chemicals as named in the Stockholm and Rotterdam Conventions shall not be used.

9.3.2 Suppliers shall use chemicals, and other dangerous substances, in accordance with the instructions provided by the supplier of the chemicals, as outlined on the label of the products.

9.3.3 Suppliers shall implement procedures for safe handling, movement, storage, recycling, reuse and disposal of dangerous substances.

9.4.1 Suppliers shall implement a procedure to ensure employees' working hours comply with legislation, with minimum standards applicable to the industry concerned, or relevant ILO Conventions, whichever is more stringent. Employees shall not be required to work extreme hours without adequate rest periods. Suppliers shall maintain proper accurate employment records including calculation of pay and hours worked.

10 Ethical business practices are of paramount importance for Cefetra's suppliers

Suppliers shall prevent any form of extortion, embezzlement, corruption, money laundering and/or bribery to ensure ethical business practices.

11 Cefetra's suppliers shall do their utmost to protect the environment

11.1 Suppliers shall make all reasonable efforts to protect the environment and to limit the negative impact of their activities and products on the environment (e.g. water, air, soil) and local communities.

11.2 Suppliers shall implement procedures for handling, movement, storage, recycling, reuse and disposal of materials in such a way that the environment is protected, and the negative impact of their activities are limited. Suppliers should operate in compliance with the Basel Convention.

11.3 Suppliers shall be in possession of relevant environmental permits, licenses and registrations necessary for its operations.

11.4 Suppliers shall not engage in activities for which High Conservation Value Areas, including but not limited to high carbon stock forests and peatlands, will be further developed. High Conservation Value Areas (HCVAs) are natural habitats which are of outstanding significance or critical importance due to their high biological, ecological, social and/or cultural values.

11.5 Land, water and forests which serve as a person's means of livelihood may not be unlawfully seized nor such persons evicted for the purpose of acquisition, construction or other use.

11.6 Suppliers shall make use of resources (e.g. water, electricity) in an appropriate manner and shall reduce resource use over time (e.g. by improving resource efficiency), as far as reasonably possible.

11.7 Waste generated from operations, industrial processes and/or sanitation facilities shall be monitored, controlled for and treated as required prior to (environmentally) safe discharge or disposal. The amount of waste shall be reduced or eliminated at the source, as far as reasonably possible, by optimizing (production) processes. It is expected that recyclability is pursued.

11.8 Suppliers shall implement practices to reduce the Greenhouse Gas emissions resulting from its operations. It is Cefetra's ambition to get insight into the Greenhouse Emissions generated in our supply chains.

12. External contractors are protected (e.g. security staff, private or public)

If third parties are employed, suppliers must ensure that employees' basic rights are protected through appropriate instruction and supervision. This also means in a prohibition of torture, cruel, inhumane or degrading treatment or injury to life or limb. In addition, freedom of association and freedom to form a coalition must be guaranteed.

13 Data protection and confidentiality

Suppliers undertake efforts to protect and safeguard personal and confidential information obtained in the course of business.

14 Potential collaboration between Cefetra's suppliers and Cefetra

Cefetra is always looking for ways to promote responsible conduct in its supply chains. As such, Cefetra embraces long-term partnerships with our suppliers to work together and improve responsible practices in our joint supply chain. If you envision a partnership with Cefetra, please reach out to your normal contact person or Cefetra's sustainability department (please find contact details in the footer).

15 Verification of suppliers' compliance with this Code of Conduct

Cefetra, also via BayWa, reserves the right to monitor adherence to the Supplier Code of Conduct. For this purpose, suppliers shall provide information in response to enquiries. Suppliers shall provide access to required documentation for the purpose of the respective audit. In the event of non-compliance with this Supplier Code of Conduct, the supplier is obliged to immediately and independently initiate necessary remedial measures. Regardless of whether the direct supplier themselves or the subcontractors they use fail to take appropriate remedial action, Cefetra shall have the right to terminate the business relationship in accordance with contractual or statutory provisions.

Cefetra offers, via its mother company BayWa, training courses that serve to prevent human rights and environmental violations, and which explain the obligations mentioned in this Supplier Code of Conduct. The training course can be accessed via the following link: baywa.com/hr-elearning.

16 Reporting violations and obligation to cooperate

If suppliers become aware of a violation of this Supplier Code of Conduct, they must report it immediately. They commit to fully cooperating in clarification procedures. The legitimate interests of the suppliers as well as the observance of the rights of employees, in particular with regard to the protection of data and company secrets, shall be protected in the reporting of violations. This also applies to violations of suppliers' subcontractors.

Furthermore, suppliers shall inform potentially affected parties of the rights provided by this Supplier Code of Conduct and point out the possibility of reporting violations directly to BayWa. Suppliers warrant that they will refrain from taking any adverse or disciplinary action against whistleblowers in connection with the processing of the reported information.

Information on violations of this Supplier Code of Conduct can be reported to BayWa at any time – also in anonymized form – via the CompCor digital whistleblowing system (baywa.compcor.de/en) or via email (socialcompliance@baywa.de).

The information is processed by BayWa AG's Social Compliance Team together with the necessary internal departments. The whistleblowers are informed about the processing and the result.
